

THE LIVING TABLE

Sunday 28th June, 2026 | Kathika Cultural Centre

The Event Flow

6:00 PM | Arrival & Transfers

Guests arrive at the parking area at Ram Lila Maidan as per the shared Google pin (near Hamdard Building) The Living Table e-rickshaw shuttles will be available for transit.

6:30 PM | Conversations Over Chai

Arrive at Kathika Cultural Centre for tea and conversation exploring the making of North India's most iconic dishes, and the migration of food cultures across the subcontinent.

8:00 PM | Dinner Experience at Neem Ki Haveli

Proceed to Neem Ki Haveli, where the evening begins with welcome bites, an open bar, and live instrumental music. Enjoy conversation and networking before taking your seat for dinner.

8:15 PM | The Table is Set

The culinary experience begins with a selection of snacks that shaped North Indian cuisine, followed by dinner in a traditional Indian thali format.

10:00 PM | Closing of the Evening

As desert is served, the evening draws to a close with music, conversation, and reflections on the many journeys that have shaped the food on our tables today.

inkpōt

THE LIVING TABLE

Sunday 28th June, 2026 | Kathika Cultural Centre

Guest Guidelines

To help you make the most of the evening, please take a moment to note the following – and come ready to embrace the chaos, charm, and energy of Delhi 6.

Dress code

Traditional Indian attire is encouraged to complement the setting and spirit of the evening.

Parking

Parking is available at the Ram Leela Maidan, near the Hamdard Building. Please follow the Google Maps pin shared in the message.

Arrival Experience

E-rickshaw transfers will be available from Ram Leela Maidan to Kathika Cultural Centre (approximately a 3-minute ride).

Beverages

An open bar will be available throughout the evening, offering an opportunity to unwind and connect before dinner is served. Alcoholic beverages will be served only to guests aged 25 years and above.

Respecting the Venue

Kathika Cultural Centre is one of Old Delhi's most iconic heritage havelis. We kindly request all guests to help preserve the space by treating it with care.

We look forward to welcoming you to The Living Table.

inkpōt

THE LIVING TABLE

